

Day Eight

St Augustine's Kilburn

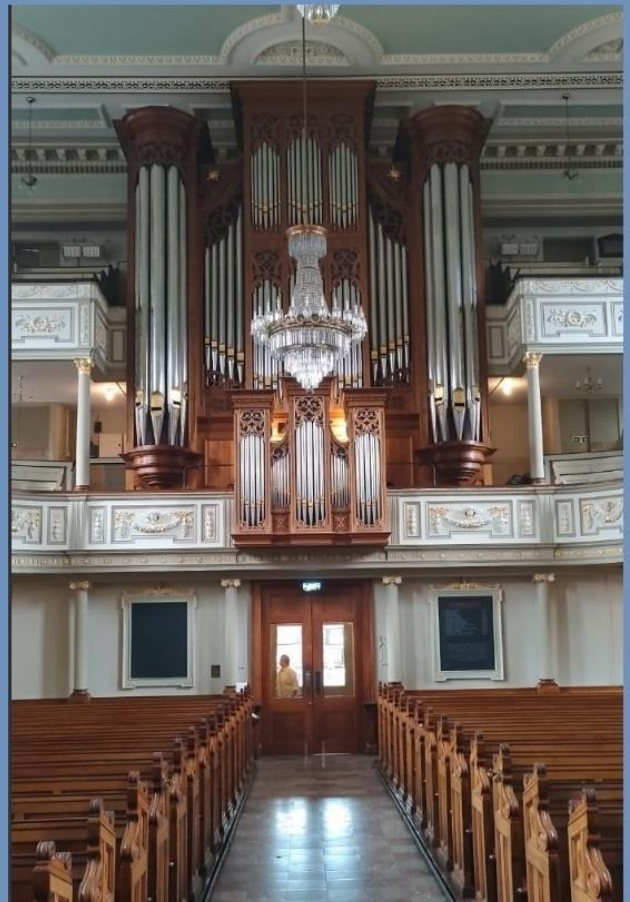

Designed by John Loughborough Pearson who also designed Truro Cathedral and St John's Cathedral Brisbane.
My second organ teacher, Lance Hardy, was Organist here.
The building wasn't open.

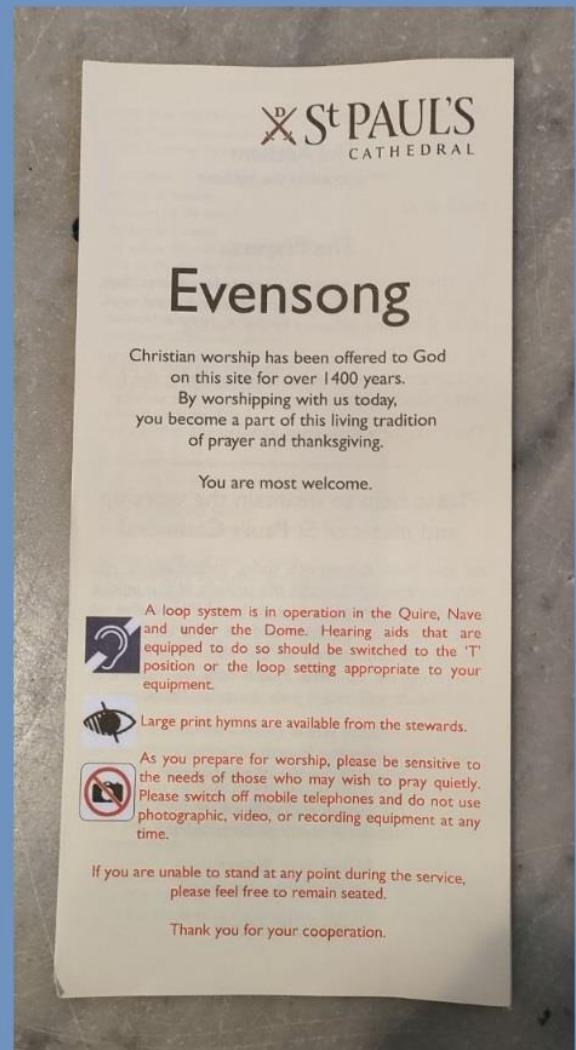

St Marylebone Parish Church

In the year 1200 a new church dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary was consecrated for the parish of Tyburn. Until the dissolution of the monasteries the patron was the Priory of St. Lawrence de Blakemore in Essex. From 1552 the Rectory was annexed to a lay Rector & the Parish served by stipendiary curates. The present church was consecrated in 1817 & in 1821 the Crown acquired the right of appointing the parish priest with the title of Rector.
